² Once evidence is taken or the required information furnished by the parties or third parties, the court shall set a deadline for the parties to quantify their claim.⁵⁵ The seised court maintains competence even if the value in dispute exceeds its material jurisdiction.

Art. 86 Partial action

¹ In the case of an action and counterclaim, the value in dispute is determined by the action with the higher value.

² For the purpose of determining the costs, the values of the action and the counterclaim are added together insofar as they are not mutually exclusive.

³ If the main action is a partial action, the legal costs are calculated solely on the basis of the value in dispute in the main action.⁵⁷

Art. 94a⁵⁸ Group action

In the case of a group action, if the parties are unable to agree on the value in dispute, or if the value they put forward is obviously incorrect, the court shall determine the value in dispute in accordance with the interests of the individual members of the group of persons concerned and the importance of the case.

Art. 254 Evidence

² Other evidence is admissible in the following cases:

- a. if the taking of evidence does not substantially delay the proceedings;
- b. if required by the purpose of the proceedings; or

Art. 255 Principle of ex-officio investigation

The court establishes the facts ex officio:

Chapter 3 Clear CasesArt. 257

¹ The court shall declare the case admissible under the summary procedure where:

- a. the facts are undisputed or immediately provable; and
- b. the legal situation is clear.

Chapter 4 Court InjunctionArt. 258 Principle

¹ Any person who holds title to immovable property may request the court to prohibit any trespass on the property and, on request, to impose a fine not exceeding 2,000 francs on any person who violates the injunction. The injunction may be temporary or indefinite.

² The applicant must prove his or her real title by means of physical records and credibly show a current or imminent trespass.

Art. 259 Notice

Notice of the injunction must be published and affixed to the property in an easily visible sign.

Art. 260 Opposition

¹ Any person who is not prepared to recognise the injunction may file an opposition with the court within 30 days of notice thereof being given by publication and at the property. The opposition needs no statement of grounds.

² Opposition renders the injunction ineffective towards the opposing person. In order to validate the injunction, an action must be filed in court.

Chapter 5 Interim Measures and Protective Letter

Section 1 Interim Measures

Art. 261 Principle

¹ The court shall order the interim measures required provided the applicant shows credibly that:

- a. a right to which he or she is entitled has been violated or a violation is anticipated; and
- b. the violation threatens to cause not easily reparable harm to the applicant.

² The court may refrain from ordering interim measures if the opposing party provides appropriate security.

The court may order any interim measure suitable to prevent the imminent harm, in particular:

- a. an injunction;
- b. an order to remedy an unlawful situation;
- c. an order to a register authority or to a third party;

- e. the payment of a sum of money in the cases provided by the law.

If the principal action is not yet pending, the court shall set a deadline within which the applicant must file his or her action, subject to the ordered measure becoming automatically ineffective in the event of default.

Art. 264 Security and damages

¹ The court may make the interim measure conditional on the payment of security by the applicant if it is anticipated that the measures may cause loss or damage to the opposing party.

² The applicant is liable for any loss or damage caused by unjustified interim measures. If the applicant proves, however, that he or she applied for the measures in good faith, the court may reduce the damages or entirely release the applicant from liability.

³ The security must be released once it is established that no action for damages will be filed; in case of uncertainty, the court shall set a deadline for filing the action.

Art. 265 Ex-parte interim measures

¹ In cases of special urgency, and in particular where there is a risk that the enforcement of the measure will be frustrated, the court may order the interim measure immediately and without hearing the opposing party.

² At the same time, the court shall summon the parties to a hearing, which must take place immediately, or set a deadline for the opposing party to comment in writing. Having heard the opposing party, the court shall decide on the application immediately.

³ Before ordering interim measures, the court may ex officio order the applicant to provide security.

Art. 266 Measures against the media

The court may order interim measures against periodically published media only if:

- a.¹⁹³ an existing or imminent violation of rights is causing or may cause the applicant a particularly serious disadvantage;
- a. the imminent violation of rights may cause the applicant a particularly serious disadvantage;
- b. the violation is obviously not justified; and
- c. the measure does not seem disproportionate.

Art. 267 Enforcement

The court that orders the interim measure shall also take the required enforcement measures.

Art. 268 Modification and revocation

¹ The interim measures may be modified or revoked if the circumstances have changed or if the measures have proven unjustified.

² The measures become automatically ineffective when the decision on the merits comes into force. The court may order their continuation if it serves the enforcement of the decision or if the law so provides.

Art. 269 Reservation

The following provisions are reserved:

- a. the provisions of the DEBA¹⁹⁴ on protective measures when enforcing monetary claims;
